Korean Studies Certificate

(SIMS Code: 114201)

The Department of Linguistics and Asian/Middle Eastern Languages offers a basic certificate in Korean studies. The certificate requires 12 units to include Korean 321 [or Asian Studies 321]; six units selected from Korean 301, 302, 331; and three units selected from Korean 430 [or Asian Studies 430], Political Science 362, or Religious Studies 345.

Students must obtain a grade of C (2.0) or better in each of the certificate courses. Under certain circumstances, comparable courses taken at other institutions may count toward the certificate. Such courses must be evaluated and approved by the certificate adviser. To register in the certificate program, contact the certificate adviser in the Department of Linguistics and Asian/Middle Eastern Languages.

Language Requirement for the B.A. Degree in Liberal Arts and Sciences

Students electing the study of Korean to fulfill the language requirement for the Bachelor of Arts degree in liberal arts and sciences must successfully complete Korean 201 or the equivalent level of achievement. The usual sequence of coursework is Korean 101, 102, and 201. Refer to section of catalog on "Graduation Requirements" for additional ways to satisfy competency.

High School Equivalents

High school foreign language courses may be used for purposes of placement in college courses and may be counted toward meeting the language requirement in various majors. These high school courses will not count as college credit toward graduation.

Secondary school language courses can be used as follows:

1. The first two years of high school level language count as the equivalent of the first semester of a college level course.
2. The first three years of high school level language count as the equivalent of the first two college semesters.
3. Four years of high school level language count as the equivalent of three college semesters or five college quarters, thus fulfilling the language requirement.
